

Extending sentences

👁 8 ✓ 0 ★ 1

Chapter 1 by Taras Pylypenko

So I found this cool guy, George Langham, who (I think) came up with this concept:

So, a quick rules.

We start with a short sentence.

Each round you have up to 8 words which must be put between words to extend the sentence (whilst keeping good grammar and complete sentences.

So

>I went to the park

Becomes

>I went, with my friends to the municipal park.

I will start with: I was in the bowling alley, following a suspicious man
